Dear Mr. Kling:

We have your letter of August 8th, and we have no plans, at this time, to purchase an aircraft.
Therefore, we are not in the market for any additional insurance.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Gibbons:

It was brought to my attention recently that the Teamsters Union is contemplating the purchase of an Aero Commander aircraft and with that in mind we were wondering if you do go through with the purchase of this aircraft if we could have an opportunity of providing you with a quotation for the insurance.

I might mention to you that our Company does own an Aero Commander aircraft, which has been quite useful and quite satisfactory to us. Would appreciate any opportunity that you may give us.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Lee Kling
